Migrant Education Program

Certified students may receive free meals, a free phone (cell or landline), and educational support. To qualify, children must have moved and/or participated in specific Migrant activities the in the last 3 years for fishing (commercial, subsistence or cannery) or logging. Children who moved to the Kodiak area so parents could seek or obtain cannery or logging work may also qualify. A screening interview is required to determine eligibility. Final certification is provided by the State of Alaska Migrant Education Office in Juneau. Tagalog and Spanish language/translation services available for your convenience. To see if you qualify, please complete our Migrant Ed Survey and return it to the KHS office.
